

FACE//OFF

Every year the Philadelphia Auto Show tries something new and exciting. This year The Automobile Dealers Association of the Greater Philadelphia came up with the idea of a Face//Off between the Mustang vs the Camaro. The show was held in January at the Pennsylvania Convention Center. The Face//Off was a play off of the best pony car rivalry in the world. The participants for this new events was the South Jersey Camaro Club and the Delaware Valley Camaro Club. Both of the clubs put forth a great collection for bowtie side. The competition was the various local Mustang clubs of the Delaware Valley.

The Camaros displayed by both clubs where

The club displays were located on the crossover bridge between the Grand Hall and Exhibit Hall. In the corridor attendees could use the voting systems to vote for the favorite display. Close to 10,000 people placed their votes... Unfortunately for the bowtie brigade, the blue oval guys were declared the winner of the Face//Off by 345 votes... Just 345!!!

If this is an event that the Philadelphia Car Show does again, we will be need to up our game!
