

SJCC ATTENDS SOUTH JERSEY CRUISERS 2013 "ORIGINAL" SPRING THAW CRUISE

On April 7th, the South Jersey Camaro Club attended the "Original" Spring Thaw Cruise presented by The South Jersey Cruisers Association. This annual event is open to All American Rides and is held in beautiful Vineland, NJ.

Our club members made it an early morning and met at Marciano's for a leisurely breakfast, and from there all cruised over to the Acme parking lot en masse.

According to Ben Notaro (a SJCC member and one of the show's organizers) a total of 474 cars were in attendance. That total included at least 17 SJCC member cars. All in all, it was a great turnout, great weather, and everyone had a great time!
